Everyone Welcome

Morning Prayer in Church

This Advent, I am going to be saying Morning Prayer in Church on a Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 9.30am, starting on Tuesday 2nd December, if you would like to join me you would be very welcome.

Advent Book

I have chosen this year to read 'Listening to the Music of the Soul' by Bishop Guli Francis – Dehqani, if you wish to join with me I have a copy of the book available for purchase at the cost of £8.00.

On a Thursday morning at 10am, starting on Thursday 4th December, I invite you to join me when over a cup of tea or coffee we can share thoughts on both the book and also look at the Advent materials prepared by Bishop Sophie.

For more information please talk to Rev Ann.

8.30am: Holy Communion – Book of Common Prayer

The Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Trinity

THE COLLECT

STIR up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

Jeremiah 23.5-8 (P. 197)

BEHOLD, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, the lord our righteousness. Therefore behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that they shall no more say, The Lord liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, The Lord liveth, which brought up, and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north-country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

THE GOSPEL

St. John 6.5-14 (P. 198)

WHEN Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? (And this he said to prove him; for he himself knew what he would do.) Philip answered him, Two hundred penny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes; but what are they among so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.
